

Terms and Conditions for Media Trust's International Women's Day Event

1. Media Trust welcomes applicants from any charity registered in the United Kingdom.
2. Charities will need to cover their own travel expenses.
3. Only one application per charity will be considered.
4. Only charities working to support women and girls, and those who identify as such, will be considered.
5. Entries will only be considered if all sections of the entry form have been completed.
6. Applications may be submitted at anytime up to 9am on Monday 13th February 2017. Submitted entries can be edited at any stage prior to 9am on Monday 13th February 2017.
7. Media Trust will endeavour to notify the successful applicants by 15th February 2017.
8. Media Trust may share individual charity's involvement in our communications including social media. However details of specific communications challenges will not be shared unless prior permission has been granted.
9. Successful charities must commit to including @Media_Trust in their social media or communications about the activity.
10. Successful charities must share evaluation and impact with Media Trust three-months post event.